To Our Friends of Law Enforcement:

Concerns of Police Survivors is a non-profit organization made up of family members and co-workers of fallen law enforcement personnel. Our mission is to assist in rebuilding the lives of surviving families and affected co-workers of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty. Furthermore C.O.P.S. provides training to law enforcement agencies on survivor victimization issues and educates the public of the need to support the law enforcement profession. Missouri Concerns of Police Survivors serves the entire state of Missouri and has Chapter Members prepared to respond promptly to assist Law Enforcement Agencies and family following a line of duty death.

All programs and events are provided free of charge to survivors. From the week long C.O.P.S. Kids Camp to weekend retreats, to the Survivors Conference in Washington D.C. during National Police Week, all survivors are offered support, counseling, and the opportunity to share struggles and celebrate successes with fellow survivors.

To help fulfill this mission, Missouri Chapter of C.O.P.S. is planning our largest fundraiser in St. Louis, the First Annual Black and Blue Ball on April 14, 2018. We have partnered with the Clayton Plaza Hotel in downtown Clayton. Paige Hulse, a KMOV multi media reporter, has already agreed to be our EMCEE, and Comedian Michael Mancini will be the entertainment. The event is a black tie affair including dinner, dancing, and prominent speakers to be announced.

We need YOU to help make this Ball a success. You can help by providing monetary sponsorships, silent auction items, program advertising space, or purchase a ticket for the event. All donations are considered tax deductible under our 501(c)3 status.

It is not how our officers died that made them heroes, but how they lived. With your help, we can make this an amazing night of remembrance, giving back to our survivors, and honoring those law enforcement officer who currently serve!

We thank you for considering us. Please sent attached levels of sponsorships and visit our website at www.mo-cops.org

Sincerely,

Annette Jansen
President of MO C.O.P.S.
